

Jonas is a careful character. He tries not to make mistakes because he is afraid of getting in trouble. This is shown when he was careful not to get in trouble when he was throwing the apple around. This foreshadows what will happen later on in the story.