

Week 1. ~~homework~~ homework correction

1. Overall the use of symbolism reveals the community's ~~the~~ highly controlled and strict environment the character live in. The symbol of the plane is unusual - faster, narrow and the the front of it is very sharp showing the community's fear of anything uncontrolled. This fear highlights how the society are used to things that ~~happens~~ are the same over and over again, showing that this community is like a factory that is ~~is~~ constantly working.
2. In this extract the author uses foreshadowing to demonstrates that Jonas is ~~very~~ very careful with his language use, it also gives us hints of how Jonas personality would be. Jonas is very reflective on his words and thoughts. He also thinks of the right words before ~~he speaks~~ he speaks revealing his special personality. His personality ~~more~~ highlights how Jonas future requires language and deep analytical thinking. Therefore, the foreshadowing establishes Jonas's unique unique unique way to communicate with others.
3. In this extract the author uses ~~the~~ imagery to paint an image in the reader's head. It let the readers to understand the story more deeply. The author uses sentences like "abandoned bikes on their sides" and "an upturned wheel still revolving slowly" revealing how they are very aware and are always ready ~~for~~ when ~~other~~ threats crossed their barrier.